MILESTONE: Rear Admiral Susan Blumenthal was honored as the first female recipient of the "Progetto Donna" medical award, bestowed by Italy's AILA Foundation in recognition of her work to combat arthritis and osteoporosis. MUSICAL INTERLUDE: The event was unusual inasmuch as it included a concert by Affetti Collaterali, a band founded by AILA President Francesco Bove, which finances medical research projects through its appearances and CD sales. Disco queen Amii ("Knock on Wood") Stewart also performed.
